

SECRET

MEMORANDUM FOR: Secretary to the Director

FROM : F. W. M. Janney
Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : Gift from a Foreign Government

REFERENCE : Your Memo, Same Subject, dated 20 July 1978
(Attached)

The request contained in referent that the Director retain the 10 cans of caviar for official use is approved. In accordance with instructions from the Office of Protocol, Department of State, however, I must advise you that gifts of edible or potable items are to be refused if at all possible. If accepted, such items are to be served at official functions only, preferably in an area designated by GSA for entertainment purposes within a government-owned building, e.g., the Executive Dining Room. Inasmuch as the Director is currently housed in government quarters, an exception is made for storage and official use of the caviar within his home.

Bad news - DDO was mistaken in that consumable gifts do fall under the $100 gift limitation.

Good news - State Dept previously authorized retention of a gift of caviar for use at "official functions."
